eCommerce Content Types by Customer Buying Stage

- The PIP is at the last stage of a customer's purchase journey. The goal of optimizing PIP is to drive more conversions.
- It also encompasses the function of effectively guiding customers through the buying funnel. Lead customers to category pages or buying guides, etc.
- Need to have appealing pictures, informational links, easy to navigate and in a straight forward manner.

Description

This 3-light vanity fixture has a refined look that shines a light on your morning or evening routine. It features an oval steel back plate and sleek, curved arms, and it has a gleaming finish for an updated take on a classic design. Three matte white shades aim to ambient light up, bathing your main bathroom or guest bath with a soft glow. Plus, this fixture takes three 75W bulbs (sold separately), and it's dimmable, allowing you to adjust the lighting level to suit your sleepy eyes in the morning.

Tactics Recommendations:

- Bigger Product Picture, add a picture with complete room décor, and add video content.
- Make product description contents fonts bigger, more obvious, and easy to see.
- Considering put product descriptions right below product pictures, and then similar products or top-selling products listed below it.
- Consider adding a “Click for details” button to save space; show viewers more detailed delivery information later
- Add coupon or other incentive options for the customer ready to buy.

Pros & Cons of Generation Lighting's Online Business at HD

Pros:

- Listed more than 1000 lighting, ceiling fans, and dehumidifier products on HD website,
- Yearly revenue of about $5.5 M, and great brand awareness.

Cons and Opportunities:

- Conversion rate is too low; many product page visits but no conversion.
- In this year product page visits increased, and same product in-store sales increased compared with last year. However, online sales didn't increase, staying at the same level as last year.
- Some products have very high page visits, but online sales and AOV are low.

Actionable Recommendations & Project Plan

Goal:

- + Increase online sales conversion rate by 200 %,
- + increase AOV by 60%, and therefore increase customer lifetime value.

Actionable Recommendations & Project Plan

Strategies:

- + Understand more about Generation Lighting's USP, and competitive advantages.
- + Meet with the marketing team to get more tracking information, and collect more information about online visitors' persona, segmentation, and buying journey.
- + Find a list of worse-performance skus.
- + Collect all necessary contents: video, technical sheets, product manual, and promotion collateral.
Category all the documents, and separate SKUs into different categories or segments.
- + Monitor Online Sales Metrics frequently to reach daily and weekly targets.
Monitor any trends and competitive information in the market to make adjustments accordingly.
- + Review with vendor partners monthly to update them about improvements and results.
